

Inszone Announces Strategic Hire of Integration Director

April 1, 2019

SACRAMENTO, Calif. -- Inszone Insurance Services, a rapidly growing national provider of personal and commercial lines insurance, announced today the hiring of Janet Castrejon as its Integration Director.

Norm Hudson, Chief Executive Officer of Inszone, said, "we are very excited about the addition of Ms. Castrejon to our management team, she will be a key player in driving Inszone towards its goals of integrations as we continue to accelerate our acquisitions of brokerages and agencies"

Ms. Castrejon has been in the insurance industry for over 20 years, with a strong track record of delivering results through sound and fundamental processes and operational execution. Ms. Castrejon has held multiple positions in managing various departments throughout her career, most recently leading the effort in integrating acquisitions for Confie Seguros, one of the largest national insurance brokerages. "I am truly looking forward to being a part of the growth of Inszone Insurance," Castrejon said. "I am excited to lead integration efforts as Inszone embarks on an aggressive growth trajectory".

As the Integration Director, Ms. Castrejon will be responsible for the full integration of all new acquisitions working closely with a variety of departments to ensure a smooth transition to customers and employees.
