SACRAMENTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Inszone Insurance Services, a leading national provider of personal and commercial lines insurance, announced today that it has appointed John Klaeb as Chairman of its Board of Directors.

“John’s executive experience, as well as proven strength in leadership will add tremendous value to Inszone”, said Norm Hudson, Chief Executive Officer of Inszone Insurance. “He will help take Inszone forward to the next level towards its goals of accelerated growth and quality customer care.”

Mr. Klaeb has over 25 years of experience in the insurance industry, with a strong and consistent track record of executive leadership and proven results. He has vast experience in the insurance industry, from development, to integration, to application of policies and quality service. Mr. Klaeb started his first brokerage in 1988 and made his first acquisition in 2002, using his experience he went on to eventually lead the build-up of Confie Seguros, one of the largest national auto insurance brokerages in the United States. Mr. Klaeb helped Confie Seguros grow through both acquisitions and organic growth.

John Klaeb, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Inszone Insurance, said, “I am excited to join Inszone, and most importantly excited for the bright future that this company has, and the amazing things we will accomplish.”
