finally came, I reached out to learn more, and the fit made sense. Having built and acquired agencies myself, I know what a sound transition looks like, and I'm confident this is the right next step for our clients and our team."

Following the acquisition, Whitman & Samuelson Insurance Services clients will gain access to the expanded markets, technology, and back-office resources of a national platform, while Whitman and his team continue the work of integrating into Inszone's systems and processes.

"Whitman & Samuelson is a remarkable agency with a history that spans nearly a century," said Chris Walters, CEO of Inszone Insurance Services. "Scott has built genuine, specialized expertise in commercial manufacturing and distribution, backed by the kind of full-service, in-house approach that clients trust and rely on. That depth of experience is hard to find, and we are honored that Scott chose Inszone to carry his agency's long legacy forward. We look forward to supporting his clients and his team with the same dedication that has defined this agency for generations."
